EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Sudhir G. Deshmukh on December 17, 2003.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 19, please change the first word from "The" to -A--.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Jaycox teaches the components of applicant's composition with the exception of the epoxy resin having at least one acetoacetate functionality and at least one epoxy group. Although Jaycox teaches that an optional epoxy resin may be added, consistent with applicant's comments in the paragraph bridging pages 7 and 8 of the response, one of ordinary skill in the art would not have been motivated to add the epoxy resin of Brindoepeke to the compositions of Jaycox. The reason is that on page 5, lines 9-23, Jaycox teaches that the whole purpose of his invention is to achieve suitable hardness after a very short cure time of one hour. In column 10, lines 8-48, Brindoepeke teaches that the processing of the epoxy resins includes a four-hour curing time. This is contrary to the objectives set forth in the Jaycox reference. Furthermore, applicant has set forth a comparative example in Table 2, page 32 of the specification that shows that acetoacetate modified epoxy resins such as those disclosed in Brindoepeke have a low hardness after curing times of 3 and 5 hours. Therefore one of ordinary skill in the art would not have been motivated and would have no reasonable expectation of success that the addition of the epoxy resins of Brindoepeke to the compositions of Jaycox would preserve the very short curing times set forth by Jaycox.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
